

Cycle North Cheshire - Privacy Policy

Issue No. 1.

Date approved at CNC meeting : 9th March 2021

Introduction

Cycle North Cheshire takes data privacy and security very seriously. The following information applies to all information we collect and retain. Your information is never sold or shared with third parties for any other purposes than those stated in this notice.

What information do we collect?

We only collect the minimum personal information we need to contact you whether you are a member of CNC or contacting us via our web site. This information includes Name, email, and telephone number.

You may visit our website anonymously. However, if you wish to submit a comment, you will be asked to enter your name and e-mail address.

We collect general, non-personal data via Google Analytics about visitor numbers, page views, referring sites, IP locations, and bounce rates to track our progress and to assist in the development of the website. The information we collect via Google Analytics is not used for any other purpose and is not shared with third parties.

How do we collect and use your information?

The information we obtain about you will be provided by you. This is either from becoming a member, completing a form on our website or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail, social media or any other websites.

The information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

- To communicate with you regarding any comment you submit
- To tell you about our latest CNC news, projects and opportunities.
- To communicate with CNC members about membership matters.
- To administer a survey or other site feature

You may unsubscribe from newsletter communications by clicking the 'Unsubscribe' link which appears at the bottom of each email or by contacting our secretary: secretary.cyclencheshire@mail.com

You may also cancel your membership at any time by contacting our secretary: secretary.cyclencheshire@mail.com

How do we protect your information?

We implement a variety of security measures to protect your personal information which is stored electronically in a password protected cloud database to which only certain CNC members have access, based upon their role in CNC.

We only use trusted 3rd parties who have suitable data protection policies and information security for the purpose stated in this notice, e.g. Web hosting, cloud storage and email services companies.

Do we use cookies?

We do not use any cookies, apart from cookies used by Google Analytics to enable us to gather anonymous data regarding site visitors.

Third party links

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer links to third party organisations, products or services on our website or in our communications. These third-party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Your right to know.

If you would like to know what information we store about you, you can make a 'Subject Access Request' by contacting our secretary: secretary.cyclencheshire@mail.com

The legal basis for processing data

Our legal basis for the processing of personal data is based on legitimate interest and/or consent.

Information Commissioners Office (ICO)

If you have concerns with how IMS has handled your Personal Information, you may contact the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) which is the ultimate UK authority responsible for data protection.

Your consent

By using our web site, you consent to this privacy and cookies policy.
